

Important Facts On NW Heber City, Utah:

NE Corner of Fort Heber: People in Fort 1859 to 20 Aug 1857=(Peace Treaty).----(Location: 100 W & 500 N)

Moses Cluff dug a ditch one mi long to operate his water driven wool cording machine, outside the north gate of Fort Heber, at 200 west & 500 N

NW Corner of Fort Heber----(Location 300 W & 500 N). See beautiful lush subirrigated meadow of North Field and West fields

George Allen Mair or George Muir Home at 280 W 400N Heber City.

William Alexander Carter of Fort Bridger, Wyoming, came to Heber and sold merchandise out of a cabin on Main Street for a time. Then he built a sandstone store at 77 West 400 North in Heber-(year 18). It has been a store, a school, a barn and more recently, the home of Fay McDonald and Clarissa Gibson.

Yellow Brick Home of John Duke---later home of Maurice and Yvonne Clummings. NW corner of 400 N Main intersection

100W 300 N John William Crook Red Sandstone home.

Only remaining original Log Cabin from the Fort Heber=John Crook's Cabin.

John Crook's Combination Red Sandstone and hand-make brick home. John Wesley Witt Sandstone home on 300 W 200 N
Patrlarch Thomas Hicken Home 291 N 100 W

"Toot" Jasperson home. 100 W 400 N
John Duke home = yellow Brick 400 N Main

John Murray Murdoch Town Home=Professional Shepherd from Scotland. At 261 N 400 W.

Important Note: This is a preliminary report.

Reference is made to the report of the Committee on the State of the Union, 1954, and the report of the Committee on the State of the Union, 1955.

The Committee on the State of the Union, 1954, and the Committee on the State of the Union, 1955, have both reported that the State of the Union is in a state of transition.

The Committee on the State of the Union, 1954, and the Committee on the State of the Union, 1955, have both reported that the State of the Union is in a state of transition.

The Committee on the State of the Union, 1954, and the Committee on the State of the Union, 1955, have both reported that the State of the Union is in a state of transition.

The Committee on the State of the Union, 1954, and the Committee on the State of the Union, 1955, have both reported that the State of the Union is in a state of transition.

The Committee on the State of the Union, 1954, and the Committee on the State of the Union, 1955, have both reported that the State of the Union is in a state of transition.

The Committee on the State of the Union, 1954, and the Committee on the State of the Union, 1955, have both reported that the State of the Union is in a state of transition.

The Committee on the State of the Union, 1954, and the Committee on the State of the Union, 1955, have both reported that the State of the Union is in a state of transition.

The Committee on the State of the Union, 1954, and the Committee on the State of the Union, 1955, have both reported that the State of the Union is in a state of transition.

The Committee on the State of the Union, 1954, and the Committee on the State of the Union, 1955, have both reported that the State of the Union is in a state of transition.

The Committee on the State of the Union, 1954, and the Committee on the State of the Union, 1955, have both reported that the State of the Union is in a state of transition.

200 North (NW):

John Turner Jr. Mercantile 2-story Store Bldg. Turner Family have truly been entrepreneurs.

John Turner Jr. sawmill, dance hall on the 2nd floor=Later Mutual Creamery, & now, an apartment house.

John Roberts Cobbler Shop & Henry Bolschwiler Tailor Shop.

Fredrick Clegg hand-made sundried Brick home. He and his friendly neighbor, John Ephriam Moulton, helped each other dig the clay from pit in south fields, near the; Provo River, then form the brick, then sundry them, and then build. their homes= east and west of each other, on 100W.

Nymphus Watson Home

John Jordan town home.

Campbell Home 190W 200 N → West Sessions Home (Art Smith)

Bsp William Forman of the West Ward. (Note Cut stone on front and random stone on the sides of the home. 181 No 200W)

Ernest Dayton was blind. He had a hot dog stand on the NE corner of Town Square.

Henry McMullin had a hotel on 105 N Main St. → West Ellis Murdock Home
Rufus "Boed" Hicken

His son, Henry Lufkin McMullin owned the home, on the corner across the road north the Amusement Hall

Amusement Hall built in 1906-7.

West to Arlene McKnight Nyman Home 95 N = 2 Story Log
Robert McNaught Herb Dr.
David Nye Home & Blacksmith garage

200-300 Main St

Eat - Jensen Slep

James Stacy → Tink
Murdoch Pool Hall
Wellers Book